DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5-7 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 recites "the two or more code parts". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims. Note that "at least one" has been deleted from claim 1 by the amendment of 2/9/2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4992944.

US 4992944 discloses all the limitations of the instant claims including; a first code part, said first code part 10 being rotated continuously by rotation of the adjustment shaft and comprising a code wheel, and a second code part 10, said second code part comprising a sliding part in the form of a code rack. Note column 4, lines 10-15. A rotary encoder necessarily has a code wheel and shaft, and the straight moving member of line 15 is readable on the code rack as broadly defined by the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4934474.

US 4934474 discloses a device including; a first part 15, said first part 15 being rotated continuously by rotation of the adjustment shaft, and a second part 16, said second part comprising a sliding part in the form of a rack. See figure 1. US 4934474 lack the explicit disclosure of the details of the sensors, particularly a code wheel for the rotary sensor 15 and a code rack for the linear sensor 16. The Examiner takes official notice that encoded parts are well known in the art of sensors. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize code parts in the sensors of US 4934474 as a well known and art recognized suitable means of sensing position, thereby ensuring accurate sensing and control of the steering system. Also note In re Leshin, 227 F.2d 197, 125 USPQ 416 (CCPA 1960) regarding the obviousness of art recognized suitable structures/devices.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4 and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 5-7 and 9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
